

EULERIAN-LAGRANGIAN MAPPING
FOR FINITE ELEMENT ANALYSES

Lars Olovsson

ABSTRACT

A computer system and method for performing a finite element analysis to determine the final dimensions of an object comprising automatically switching from an Eulerian formulation to a Lagrangian formulation during the analysis.